Dr. Tang is a highly accomplished neurologist with extensive clinical, academic, and leadership experience in the field of neurology. His journey into medicine began with a strong foundation with a Bachelor of Arts in Biochemistry from Occidental College. He then pursued a Master of Public Health at Boston University School of Public Health, where he honed his understanding of population health and epidemiology before completing his Doctor of Medicine at Jefferson Medical College in 2016.

Dr. Tang is a Diplomate of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, a Certified Impairment Rater, and has specialized training for BOTOX® treatments for neurological conditions. His professional licensures span across multiple states, enabling him to provide care to diverse patient populations.

In his clinical career, Dr. Tang was the Chief Resident for the Department of Neurology at the University of Maryland Medical Center, a preeminent Level I Trauma Center during the advent of the COVID pandemic. He has served as a Staff Neurologist at prominent medical institutions, including Licking Memorial Hospital and Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital. In addition, he has held academic appointments as a Clinical Assistant Professor at the Medical College of Georgia Southwest Campus, where he also served as the LIC Clinical Specialty Director for Neurology and was the Faculty Member of the Year in 2023. He has been a Master Speaker for novel migraine treatments in the pharmaceutical industry.
